

“ Narelle was the perfect cat and house sitter. I'm quite nervous about going away, as our cat does not like us being away one bit, and doesn't always connect with the sitters. Narelle made friends with him quickly at our first meet, and we returned to find a happy cat and a spotless home. I'd recommend Narelle to anyone, as long as it doesn't mean she's unavailable the next time I need to leave!
